President's Message

Jane Guy

I enjoy this time of year when our new season starts and there is lots of activity and excitement around with folk getting ready for our first production. The new stage curtains are hung; the Hall window pelmets are completed; and, thanks to Graham Thomson and Pearl Arden, the men's dressing room has received a make-over.

Rehearsals have started for Nana's Naughty Knickers and the set is under construction. Before the auditions, we also received a note from Katherine DiSavino, the author, wishing us best wishes.

This is also a time to make sure you renew your membership - after all you would not want to miss out on receiving these newsletters, now would you? Membership renewal forms are attached. If you are interested in season tickets - the best way to go to ensure the best seats and of course a savings on individual prices - a form is also attached.

Due probably to the first glorious day of summer finally arriving, we had a record attendance of 35 at the AGM and BBQ on July 24th.

The new Executive was voted in:

President - Jane Guy
Vice - President - Dave Hitchcock
Secretary - Neville Owen
Treasurer - Mike Chadwick
Members-at-Large
- Pearl Arden
- Elizabeth Brimacombe
- Rosalind Coleman

We are happy to welcome Rosalind to the Executive and to say many thanks and bid farewell to Lori Smith, who has moved to Prince George. We miss you Lori.

We also presented The Rev. Canon Peter Parker a cheque for $13,240 in appreciation for St Luke's Church's support for the Players.

Before firing up the BBQs, we were treated to a very polished final dress rehearsal of the one-act play Dinner for One, the Players' entry in the BC Senior Games, and performed by Elaine Lewis and George Morfitt (see more about how they did later in the newsletter).

Thanks to Steve Sturgess who continues to do an excellent job of creating and maintaining our website which is awesome. Take a look at photos of past productions and old newsletters and get up to date information about our new season.

Thanks also to Bronwyn Taylor who took on the time consuming task of memberships and season ticket sales and increased both of these over the year - an incredible job!

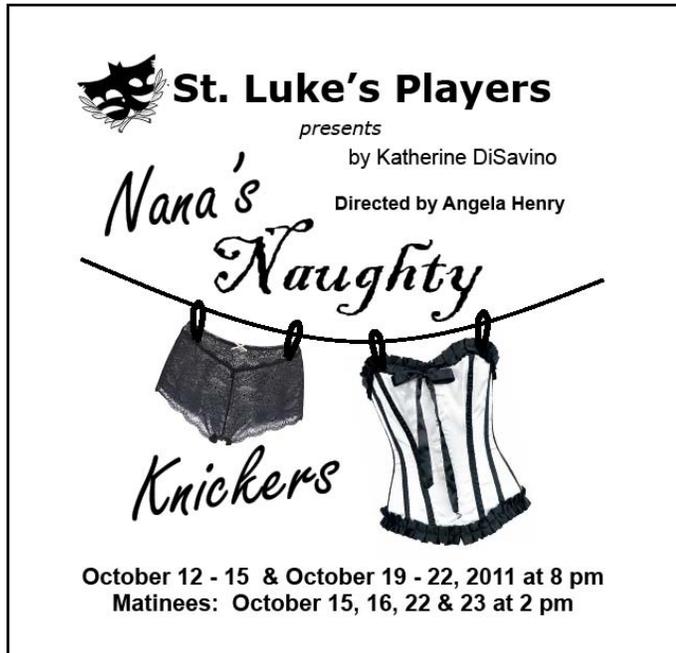

We are delighted that Amica at Douglas House will continue as sponsors for our 2011-12 Season.

Here's to a great Season!

Jane

Nana's Naughty Knickers - a comedy by Katherine DiSavino
 Directed by Angela Henry

Dear St. Luke's Players -

I believe I saw that you all have auditions this weekend for your production of NANA'S NAUGHTY KNICKERS, and I just wanted to drop you a line and wish you all well! I hope you have a wonderful turn out and a great time.

All best wishes,

Katherine DiSavino
 Author of NANA'S NAUGHTY
 KNICKERS

Elfrida Hamilton, well known among artists in Victoria and the lower island, is painting an original oil for the set. She has had her work entered in the Sooke juried Art Show among many others. The painting will be available for sale after the show. www.elfridasart.blogspot.com

Bridget and her grandmother are about to become roommates. However, what Bridget saw as a unique opportunity to stay with her favourite Nana in New York for the summer, quickly turns into an experience she'll never forget. It seems her sweet grandma is running an illegal boutique from her rent-controlled apartment, selling hand-made naughty knickers to every senior citizen in the five borough area!

Will Bridget be able to handle the excitement? Will Nana get arrested – or worse – evicted?

Elaine Lewis and Jennifer Ferguson rehearsing

Rehearsals are well underway for Nana's Naughty Knickers with some familiar faces - Rosalind Coleman, Elaine Lewis, Matthew Mathiason, Richard Gauthier. You may recognize Jon Scheer and Pearl Arden who are usually behind the scenes at St Luke's but now on the boards. We welcome newcomers Natalie Munro and Jennifer Ferguson to St Luke's stage and Director Angela Henry who needs no introduction to the Victoria theatre community. Jon Scheer and Mike Chadwick are Co-Producers; Geoff Davidson is Stage Manager.

What's Been Happening

St. Luke's Players Brings Home the Gold

St. Luke's Players entered the BC Seniors' Games One-Act Play competition this year, and we won the gold medal! The play, Dinner for One, starred George Morfitt and Elaine Lewis. Not only did Dinner for One win the Gold Medal for best production, but George won Best Actor and Elaine Best Supporting Actor. Although the adjudicator, Laurie Jarvis, had lovely things to say about the show, she did not award Gaylord Gnu honourable mention for best rug. Credit goes to Neville Owen for suggesting Dinner for One as a suitable entry for the competition and for coming up with creative and intelligent ways to stage it.

The One-Act Play competition took place in Nelson in August at the beautiful Capitol Theatre. The props and costumes were taken to Nelson by George and Elaine in Rubbermaid boxes nicknamed "theatre in a box." The large set pieces – dining table and sideboard - were provided by the One-Act Play coordinator in Nelson, Margaret Stacey, who kindly moved her dining room furniture to the Capitol Theatre for George and Elaine to use as a set. Elaine's partner, Judy Bell, acted as stage manager and got everything in place for the show.

The BC Seniors' Games One-Act Play competition was a huge amount of fun for those involved; the Seniors' Games are an enjoyable and interesting four days with competitions in everything from bridge and dragon boating to table tennis and track and field. Next year the Games will take place in Burnaby, and St. Luke's Players may want to consider entering the One-Act Play competition again.

Elaine and George

Check out our new stage curtains!

These arrived over the summer and a group of volunteers set about hanging them.
