President's Message

Jane Guy

WOW! What an incredible turn out we had for the panto, Alice in Wonderland. Even with the extra two performances we were completely sold out and even had a full house on the free preview night! Congratulations to everyone involved for making it such a success and special thanks to the Directors, Dave and Helena Hitchcock - this may well have been their best panto ever (from hearing what folk around said). Here is an excerpt of an e-mail received by one of our patrons, and it sums it up.

"I enjoyed Alice. It was my fifth Panto by the St Luke's Players and as always I found it entertaining and funny. This year I had a vested interest in the play: my granddaughter was in the cast and had a blast. Through her I found a bigger appreciation of the time and effort the Panto requires of everybody involved in its successful production. Of course that goes for the directors, the cast, and the supporting crew. But also for the people responsible for the music, publicity, ticket sales and distribution, and all hard-working in costumes, make-up, set design and painting, and many others. My hat off to all."

Rehearsals are well underway for our next production, the thriller by Peter Colley, I'll Be Back before Midnight, directed by Jon Scheer. This promises to "scare us to death". The set construction crew are working hard and are looking for more helping hands - so please contact Neville at 250 592 4285 if you would like to help. Opening night is March 14 and tickets go on sale on February 14 at the usual outlets, and will be available at the door.

Please refer to page 4 of this newsletter for more information on auditions for the last production of the season, Murdered to Death by Peter Gordon and directed by Neville Owen.

We are also happy to promote other productions around town and post audition notices so please check these out later in the newsletter.

After the tremendous success St Luke's Players achieved in last year's BC Senior Games, we are very excited about sending another entry later this year in Burnaby from August 21 - 25. If anyone 55 and over is interested, please contact Neville or any member of the Executive. Visit the website www.bcseniorgames.org.

We continue to enjoy a warm and close relationship with St Luke's Church and all SLP members have been invited to their next Pub Night on Friday February 10 at 6:30. See more information later in the newsletter. In order to help cater, please let them know if you plan to join - call 250 477 6741.

With February 14 just around the corner, I'd like to wish you all a Happy Valentine's Day!

Rehearsals and set construction are well under way for the March production I'll Be Back Before Midnight. This thriller is directed by Jon Scheer and has a cast of four: Mur Meadows, Michelle Mitchell, Michael King and Jo Barnes. Jon is assisted by a large production crew including producer Mike Chadwick and Stage Manager Susan Nicholl.

The Plot:

A young woman, Jan, is brought to a lonely farmhouse by her husband Greg to recover from a nervous breakdown. But frightening things start to happen almost as soon as they arrive. Then Greg's lustful sister, Laura, with whom he seems to have an unnaturally close relationship, appears unexpectedly. There is also George, the rather strange old farmer who lives nearby, with his tales of murders and ghosts in the neighbourhood. And then there are the flickering lights, the mysterious heartbeats, the hand at the window, the blood on the floor, the corpse in the hallway . . . a nightmare, with twist after twist.

Alice in Wonderland

A traditional panto by Kate Parry & Karen Dolan-Smith

Directed by Dave & Helena Hitchcock

Well the panto is over for another year - make-up removed, the costumes washed, props returned, lights & sound switched off, dressing rooms & kitchen cleaned, chairs stacked, surplus programs & song sheets recycled, scenery taken down and stored under the stage, and our panto family dispersed around Victoria.

While this sixth annual St Luke's Players panto followed the traditional British format, incorporating lots of singing, dancing, silly jokes, crazy chases, outrageous costumes, colourful sets, audience participation, and children invited up on to the stage, there were many "firsts" for Alice in Wonderland:

- Alice was the first St Luke's Players' production for many of the Production Crew and about half of the Cast, including the actors playing the principal roles of the March Hare (Julie Gray), Princess Euthanasia (Jennifer Dechka), the Queen of Hearts (Jan Manchur), the White Rabbit (Janine Longy) and Alice (Rebecca Lawrence.)

- This was the first panto with Connie te Kampe as Musical Director.
- It was the first time that a St Luke's Players' panto used video technology, capturing the puppetry of Tim Gosley as the Cheshire Cat.
- This was the first panto to run for 12 performances, although it continued to be totally "sold out" weeks before it opened.

So, all that remains for us to do is to say a BIG THANK YOU to all of the Cast (of 25), Production Crew (of 50) and Audience (of almost 1,700, including the Preview Performance), for another most enjoyable, successful, and fun panto.

a comedy/mystery
written by Peter Gordon

Set in 1930's England

An hilarious spoof of Agatha Christie's Miss Marple and Blake Edwards' Inspector Clouseau, this "whodunit" twists and turns with side-splitting antics and ever-increasing merriment and confusion, with an assembled cast of characters guaranteed to delight. The play introduces the inept and bungling Inspector Pratt, who battles against the odds to solve the murder of the house's owner.

But will the murderer be unmasked before every one else has met their doom, or will the audience die laughing first?

CHARACTER DESCRIPTIONS

MILDRED BAGSHOT - late 50's. Wealthy widow. Can be quite assertive.

DOROTHY FOXTON - mid 20's. Mildred's long suffering niece, knows the value of money, a fairly normal person.

BUNTING, the butler - in his 60's. Something mysterious in his past, perhaps not the perfect butler. Could or should have a distinctive walk.

COLONEL CHARLES CRADDOCK - 50-60's. A retired Army soldier. Has a blustery manner, lots of 1920's English slang, not much in love with his wife.

MARGARET CRADDOCK - 40-50's. The Colonel's wife, a bit prim and proper, speaks sharply, not very loving to her husband.

PIERRE MARCEAU - 30's. A French art dealer and painter, needs a French accent, as in old time movies, drops the 'h'. But in Act II speaks with his natural English accent.

ELIZABETH HARLEY-TRUMPINGTON - mid 20-30's. Attractive, very high-society. Snooty affectations, inclined to over dramatize everything. But in Act II speaks with her natural Cockney or similar accent.

JOAN MAPLE - 60's. Always calm, makes obvious, glib statements and does knitting. We all know who she is modeled after, don't we Agatha?

INSPECTOR PRATT - 40-50's. An inept, posing, and clumsy walking disaster. We all know who he is modeled after, don't we Blake?

CONSTABLE THOMPSON - 20-30's. A young village constable, intelligent.
