President's Message

Rosalind Coleman

Dear Members:

It's springtime at last – a time for hearts and flowers and all things new and hopeful. We welcome the sense of new beginnings. Here at St Luke's Players, we are in the midst of preparing for our third play of the 2012-13 season, Casting for Murder. This exciting, new, murder mystery has all the elements of intrigue and suspense that our audiences love. Written by Vancouver playwright, Elizabeth Elwood and being performed for the first time in Victoria, this play marks a great start for the new year.

Looking back on the Christmas "panto," Goldilocks and the 3 Bears, we would like to thank all the cast and crew for their tremendous effort. With so much going on at Christmas, it takes real dedication to maintain the high energy which is at the heart of "the panto." This year we had another great success and were sold out by the first week in December, prompting us to plan an extra performance for next Christmas. We would like to thank you, our members, for your outstanding support.

Total attendance for our plays in the calendar year 2012 was an impressive 4,083. We continue to invite elderly folk from the community to attend the final dress rehearsal/preview show for free. We have increased Season Ticket sales to 271 and to date have 134 members. We are always happy to welcome new members so if you have a friend who might be interested, please let us know. Amica at Douglas House generously continues to be a sponsor for our 2012-13 Season.

For the coming season, we are pleased to report that our play selection committee is hard at work and will be announcing our 2013-14 season in May.

Wishing you a happy spring with many warm days!

Rosalind

Preparations are well under way for Casting for Murder. As its title suggests, it is a murder mystery, and was written by Burnaby playwright, Elizabeth Elwood. Its setting will be familiar to Victoria audiences, as the action takes place on a small privately owned Gulf Island.

Angela Benson inherits a fortune when her Aunt Maud is murdered, but the killer is never found. Angela's acting career flourishes, but suspicion continues to cloud her life, even after her marriage to mystery writer, John Rutherford. As Angela prepares for the role of Amanda in Noel Coward's Private Lives, a young journalist uncovers some startling new evidence about the three-year-old murder, and John and Angela find themselves embroiled in a sinister play beyond the footlights when the cast assembles at their island.

Murder and suspense abound with bodies falling off cliffs, a violent storm, poisoned drinks and a savage stabbing! What more could you want?

The cast comprises: Elizabeth Brimacombe, Perry Burton, Luke Krayenhoff, Kathy Macovichuk, Kevin Rich, Deirdre Tipping and Drew Waveryn.

Tony Cain, new to St Luke's Players but not the Victoria theatre community, is directing this play. The production crew includes Elizabeth Whitmarsh as Stage Manager, and the set is designed by Don Keith.

Constructing the set:
On stage: Chris Frappell, Neville Owen
In front: Tom Holder, Graham Thomson, Harry Edwards

Goldilocks and the 3 Bears

A traditional panto by Damian Trasler, David Lovesay and Steve Clark (TLC Creative)

Directed by Kathy Macovichuk

I admire acts of bravery; those moments of courage, where people deliberately place themselves beyond their comfort zones for the benefit of themselves, the people around them or for a community group. These acts never cease to amaze me. It's certainly true that you never know what you can do until you try.

Moments like this were abundant during Goldilocks and the 3 Bears; from the many cast members, who had never acted before, to myself in my first role as director. Our stage manager, assistant stage manager, most of our tech crew and properties person were new to their jobs, and throughout the process we all learned what worked and what didn't work.

Even the returning actors experienced their own "outside the box" moments. The singing and dancing were more complicated this year than in the past but everyone rose to the challenge, putting in the time and effort to make the show a success. Our new dame needs a special mention. Chris Harris admirably filled this role for his first time, even to the point of committing to the application of red acrylic nails (raising many an eyebrow when he went out to the bars) and enduring false eyelashes. Brava Chris.

I want to thank our many supporters, both inside and outside the theatre community. I did things a little different this year and while this was met with some resistance, the show proved to be a success, enjoyed immensely by the sold out crowds. Ultimately these performances are for the families who come out with their kids to see the panto. A child who leaves with a laugh and a smile on their face is our proof that we've accomplished a job well done.

Can't wait to see what next year will bring.

"CAKE WALK"

Directed by Penelope Harwood

will be held at St. Luke's Hall,
3821 Cedar Hill Cross Road

Tuesday Feb 19 at 7 p.m.

Saturday Feb 23 at 1 p.m.

Call backs: Tuesday Feb 26 at 7 p.m.

Plot:

Six unlikely contestants, including one who submits a bridal cake, clash in a cake-baking contest in a small town on Canada Day. They experience a roller-coaster day of heartbreak and laughter and, as tension mounts, cakes go missing and tempers rise. In the end each character gets his or her just desserts. Written by Canadian playwright, Colleen Curran, this much-produced comedy is as fun today as when it was first produced in 1984.
